Informational Leafleting at the North American International Auto Show To Highlight the Shameful Conditions in Our Schools

As the city celebrates this “ultra-luxury” automobile event, Detroit’s public schools are in a state of crisis. Children are struggling in schools with hazardous environmental and safety issues. Educators have made significant sacrifices for the good of students, including taking pay cuts and reductions in health benefits.

Help us distribute leaflets and ask community members to sign our petition and join our fight for Detroit kids.
